

Jolaine Fyke

Jolaine Sharolyn Lanette Fyke passed away early Sunday morning in Medicine Hat. Jolaine was born in Medicine Hat on June 29, 1963. She is survived by her loving parents, John and Dona Fyke, one brother Rob (Renee Dube) of Medicine Hat; two sisters, Kendy Elliott (Tim) of Medicine Hat and Danielle Fyke (Mike Bobowski) of Charlotte, North Carolina; one special nephew, Taylor Elliott and two special nieces, Jordyn Elliott and Dannica McKim Fyke- all of Medicine Hat.

Dearly loved by aunts and uncles; Verna and Ken Pollock of Iron Mountain, Michigan; Ron and Deb Remus of Brooks; and Darlene Renner (Lyle Weis) of Edmonton- as well as many cousins and her very beloved dog "Niki". Jolaine was predeceased by both sets of Grandparents, Ross and Myrtle Fyke and Herb and Bertha Remus and a well loved uncle, Terry Renner.

Jolaine was a very out-going person and had many friends. One of her favorite hobbies was flower arranging. She had her own flower shop "Petal Lane" for a couple of years and also worked at "Valleydale Greenhouses" and "Crescent Heights Florist". Another hobby of Jolaine's was music. Growing up in her family's music business she knew all of the current bands, their names and what songs they played.

She will be dearly missed by all who knew her and enjoyed her sense of humor.

Special thanks to all the Doctors and Nurses in I.C.U, 6 West and Palliative Care. Thank you to her devoted friends, Sally, Brenda, Shirley and Jim.

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put his arms around you
And whispered- "Come with Me"

With tearful eyes
We watched you suffer
And saw you fade away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay.
